

January 28, 2009

AMCS is an associate member of IOMA

AMCS attends IOMA Annual Meeting

This meeting of the International Oxygen Manufacturers Association brings together companies which are major contributors to the industry. Old acquaintances were renewed and new contacts were established.

AMCS President and CEO Ishmael Chalabi and Senior Process Engineer Dr. Bob Mostello attended the 2008 IOMA annual meeting in October of 2008. They actively participated in events and meetings in advancing, coordinating and prioritizing the harmonization of industrial gas safety standards to achieve common operating practices worldwide.